-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Election/Restrictions

Applicant's election of Species II in the reply filed on September 28, 2004 is acknowledged. Because applicant did not distinctly and specifically point out the supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election has been treated as an election without traverse (MPEP § 818.03(a)).

Claims 8-10, 32, 35, 36, 39, 40, 42, 50-53 and 68-69 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected species, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on September 28, 2004.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1, 2, 7, 25, 26, and 31 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Saul US Patent 4,538,607.

Saul discloses a valve device comprising a first valve member (29) with a first plane surface and a second valve member (14) with a second plane surface facing and touching the first plane surface (see attachment). The second member being displaceable relative to the first member between different positions (see Figs. 1-4). The valve members include different liquid channels (16, 22 and exit channel of element 12) and wherein the second valve member is adapted to connect at least two different channels to each other in at least one of the positions.

Regarding claims 7, and 31, the second member is capable of sliding on the first plane surface of the first valve member.

Claims 1, 2, 25 and 26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Ulert et al US Patent 6,576,010 B2.

Ulert et al discloses a valve device comprising a first valve member (12) with a first plane surface and a second valve member (11) with a second plane surface facing and touching the first plane surface (see Fig. 1). The second member being displaceable relative to the first member between different positions (see Figs. 1-5). The valve members include different liquid channels (3 & 4) and wherein the second valve member is adapted to connect at least two different channels to each other in at least one of the positions.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 3-6, 11-24, 27-30 and 33, 34, 37, 38, 41, 43-49, 54-67 and 70-141 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
